

PARENTS AS COLLABORATORS TO BUILD COMPREHENSION AND THINKING SKILLS!

Workshop aim to empower parents with:

How to raise a Reader, Writer & Thinker

Ten strategies a parent can use to nurture higher order thinking with text

Strategies to create a reading home

Comprehension using digital text

Parent led strategies to support comprehension

Book list and suggestions to build readers and reading

Day, dates and time schedule

Grades K-2 day & dates

All Saturday- 15th August, 22nd August, 29th August, 5th September and 12th September. Time: 8:30am to 10:00am

About the Facilitator

Dalbir Kaur is an educational entrepreneur committed to creating high-rigor & child-centered libraries and learning spaces. With courses & certification from Teachers Reading and Writing College, New York, Bank Street College of Education, New York, Lesley University, Boston, Project Zero at Harvard University, she believes libraries and reading needs re-invention and collaboration to raise readers as thinkers and problem solvers.

Five separate 90 minute sessions for Grades individually: K- 2, 3-5, 6-8

For financials contact - One Up Library - Dalbir Kaur -9779107797

PARENTS AS COLLABORATORS TO BUILD COMPREHENSION AND THINKING SKILLS!

Workshop aim to empower parents with:

How to raise a Reader, Writer & Thinker

Ten strategies a parent can use to nurture higher order thinking with text

Strategies to create a reading home

Comprehension using digital text

Parent led strategies to support comprehension

Book list and suggestions to build readers and reading

Day, dates and time schedule

*Grade 3 to Grade 5: ****

day & dates: Sunday- 16th August, 23rd August, 30th August, 6th September & 13th September. Time - 8:30am to 10:00am

About the Facilitator

Dalbir Kaur is an educational entrepreneur committed to creating high-rigor & child-centered libraries and learning spaces. With courses & certification from Teachers Reading and Writing College, New York, Bank Street College of Education, New York, Lesley University, Boston, Project Zero at Harvard University, she believes libraries and reading needs re-invention and collaboration to raise readers as thinkers and problem solvers.

Five separate 90 minute sessions for Grades individually: K- 2, 3-5, 6-8

For financials contact - One Up Library - Dalbir Kaur -9779107797

PARENTS AS COLLABORATORS TO BUILD COMPREHENSION AND THINKING SKILLS!

Workshop aim to empower parents with:

How to raise a Reader, Writer & Thinker

Ten strategies a parent can use to nurture higher order thinking with text

Strategies to create a reading home

Comprehension using digital text

Parent led strategies to support comprehension

Book list and suggestions to build readers and reading

Day, dates and time schedule

Grade 6 to Grade 8 - day & dates

Sunday- 16th August, 23rd August, 30th August, 6th September & 13th September. Time- 3:30pm to 5:00pm

About the Facilitator

Dalbir Kaur is an educational entrepreneur committed to creating high-rigor & child-centered libraries and learning spaces. With courses & certification from Teachers Reading and Writing College, New York, Bank Street College of Education, New York, Lesley University, Boston, Project Zero at Harvard University, she believes libraries and reading needs re-invention and collaboration to raise readers as thinkers and problem solvers.

Five separate 90 minute sessions for Grades individually: K- 2, 3-5, 6-8

For financials contact - One Up Library - Dalbir Kaur -9779107797